

2007-2008 RCDC Seminar Schedule

1. Sept 20: "Highlights and services of the OAIC MDMAC; what can the core do for you?" presented by Andrej Galecki, MD, PhD
2. Oct 18: "Towards Better Injury Prevention in the Population", presented by James Ashton-Miller, PhD
3. Nov 14: Human subjects and aging research: Diabetes-related trajectories of functional health," presented by Jersey Liang, PhD & Lynda Nyquist, PhD
4. Dec 13: "Funding in aging research and the road to independence," presented by Jeffrey Halter, MD
5. Jan 17: "Practical issues for incorporating genomics into research on aging" presented by David Burke, PhD, Professor, Department of Human Genetics, Research Associate Professor of Gerontology, Institute of Gerontology
6. Feb 21: How to get a grant if you already have a good idea and strong preliminary data," presented by Rich Miller
7. March 20: "Interdisciplinary research and cooperation," presented by James Ashton-Miller, PhD
8. April 3: " Do statins lower the risk of dementia and cognitive impairment?" presented by Mary Haan, Dr.P.H., M.P.H., Professor of Epidemiology, School of Public Health